

HUMANE SOCIETY OF INDIANAPOLIS

Contact: Katherine Simons
katherines@indyhumane.org
317-872-5650 ext. 119

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 21, 2008

HUMANE SOCIETY OF INDIANAPOLIS ELECTS NEW BOARD MEMBERS AND OFFICERS

INDIANAPOLIS...The Humane Society of Indianapolis has announced the election of six new members of the Board of Directors to three-year terms. Those elected were Dr. Bob Barnes, Randy Brown, Robb Day, Dr. Vicki Mech Hester, Dona Stohler and Kay Whitaker. .

Dr. Barnes is the owner of Mt. Comfort Animal Hospital. Brown is executive vice president and chief human resources officer for Wellpoint. Day is relationship manager commercial real estate for Charter One Bank. Dr. Mech Hester is the owner of Mech Hester Solutions. Stohler is the director of business development and marketing for Ice Miller. Whitaker is the chief financial officer of Central Indiana Community Foundation.

Martha Boden, chief executive officer of the Humane Society of Indianapolis, said of their election, "We are pleased to have these six outstanding community volunteers join our leadership team. Their input and guidance will be invaluable."

Newly elected officers are board chair David Horth of Quest Commercial Real Estate, incoming board chair and leadership development chair Byron Mason of Baker & Daniels, secretary

-more-

Martha Plager of The Worth Collection and treasurer Pete Donahoe of Gilday Donahoe & Irvin P.C. Officers serve one-year terms. Horth and Plager are in their second three-year term on the board. Mason and Plager are in their first term.

Since 1905, the Humane Society of Indianapolis has provided shelter and comfort to animals in need on the path to loving lifetime homes.

###